

Women's History Month

Leadership as a Life Adventure
Tips from Successful Multicultural Professional Women

High Tea Talk

FDR Leadership Series

Facilitated by Ana Androsik, CEO, FDR

28 March 2024, 3-4 p.m. EST

Join Us on Zoom

Ana Androsik

CEO, Foundation for Data and Research, USA/Canada

Ana practiced and taught entrepreneurial leadership including in United Nations peacekeeping operations. Ana is able to tell the story that motivates people and strives in change management. Ana has a proven track record in mobilizing multi-million dollar funding for programming.

Ana is the founding CEO of Foundation for Data and Research (FDR), a social enterprise aimed at solving the problem of reliable knowledge production.

Alena Liavonchanka

PhD, Deputy Director, Manufacturing Technology, Sanofi Canada

Alena works in biotech sector. Outside of work she leads a community non-profit and promotes collaboration of Belarusian diasporas worldwide.

Alexandra Logvin

Lawyer/Counsel at Fasken, Canada

Alexandra is a lawyer practicing commercial litigation, arbitration, and international trade and investment law. Alexandra regularly appears before various courts and tribunals, including international and domestic commercial and sport arbitration panels, Superior Court of Ontario, the Federal Court of Canada, the Canadian International Trade Tribunal (CITT), the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), and the International Chamber of Commerce.

Elsy Patricia Martinez

Chief of Resource Unit, United Nations HQ, USA

Elsy Patricia works at the Engineering Section/Logistic Division/ Department of Operational Support at the United Nations Headquarters, New York. She served in the administrative missions of UNMIK (United Nations Administrative Mission in Kosovo) and UNAMA (United Nations Administrative Mission in Afghanistan).

Zara Mahdi

Public Relations Director, Foundation for Data and Research, USA/Canada

Zara is an international development professional with her focus being on reproductive health, leadership development, participatory research and mentoring African girls and young women left behind through multiple forms of gender violence and traumas in the UK and Sub-Saharan Africa.

